Responsibilities:

- To deliver children's activities as part of a team and on your own.
- Work at adult workshops, events and engage them in the same way you would children.
- Helping families be creative and engaging them in conversation.
- Collect and organise equipment for your events.
- Ensure all creative outputs align with Wild Earth Movement's ethos, mission, and values.
- Develop great relationships with other organisations, businesses and families.

About You:

- Be creative and arty and not get bored of it.
- Be great at engaging all ages from toddlers to grandparents.
- Be able to think on your feet and use your initiative
- Passionate about the natural world and looking after the planet.
- Able to work both independently and as part of a team.
- Willing to work both indoors and outdoors.

What We Offer:

- Flexible working hours tailored to your schedule.
- Opportunity to make a meaningful impact in a dynamic, purpose-driven organisation.

- A supportive and inclusive team culture with team meet ups and social outings.
- Potential for growth and professional development within the organisation as we become a registered charity.
- A platform to bring your ideas to life and help shape the future of Wild Earth Movement.

How to Apply:

Please send your CV and availability plus a short cover letter about yourself, your interests and anything else we should know about you. Please feel free to hide any age, gender or ethnicity from your CV if you wish too.
